

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

A former football player with the Brevard College Tornados in North Carolina, is the 71st Flying Training Wing November Airman of the Month.

From Pittsburgh, Airman 1st Class Graham Davis is a paralegal with the Vance Legal Office and has been part of Team Vance since June.

Airman Davis was selected for the honor by a panel of senior enlisted leaders, based on his work performance and how well he meets Air Force standards.

As Airman of the Month, Davis will shadow the Wing command chief master sergeant, Peter Speen, for a day. And that suits Airman Davis just fine, because one day, he would like to fill those shoes.

Capt Christopher Jackson assumed command of the 71st Security Forces Squadron during a ceremony held Nov. 10th at the Vance Club. Captain Jackson comes to Vance from an assignment with the United States Air Forces Europe at Ramstein Air Base, Germany.

That's your Vance Minute...have a great Air Force day.
